Bank of Ireland

Bank of Ireland Group

Bank of Ireland is one of the world's oldest banks, established by the Royal Charter in 1783. A diversified services group with a market leading franchise in Ireland and well established operations in the UK. The Bank is a traditional relationship driven retail and commercial bank with a proactive business philosophy.

Our Team

We provide banking services to a range of public sector bodies including local authorities, registered charities, NHS trusts, district & parish councils.

We have many years experience in these sectors. Whatever your requirements, as a Bank of Ireland customer you can be confident that we will work with you and provide that personal touch.

Our Approach

Customer Service - For all your day-to-day queries, our UK based customer service team are available to take your call, Monday - Friday (9am - 5pm)

Relationship Management - When you need specialist advice, your Relationship Manager can work with you to identify solutions that work for you.

So if you are looking for a bank that understands your requirements, contact us today.
